United Bankers' Bank Announces New CBO Shane Bellefy Addition to Correspondent Sales Team

BLOOMINGTON, Minn. – William C. Rosacker, President and CEO of United Bankers' Bank, is pleased to announce the addition of Shane Bellefy to the correspondent sales team. Shane will serve as the Correspondent Banking Officer for Iowa. Prior to United Bankers' Bank, Shane represented Midwest Independent Bank as their correspondent banker in Iowa.

“Shane has extensive knowledge and experience in correspondent banking, and has established many relationships throughout the state of Iowa. His dedication and motivation to provide community banks with quality correspondent products and services is unparalleled,” states Jay Syverson, Vice President and Regional Correspondent Banking Sales Manager.

Growing up in a small town in Iowa, Shane has witnessed first-hand how vital community banking is. Bellefy comments, “Assisting our customers with their correspondent needs while not competing against them is a top priority. I look forward to creating dependable and trust-based relationships throughout my territory.”

Bellefy is a graduate of St. Ambrose University in Davenport, IA with a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Economics and Finance. He has served on various ABA and ICBA committees and is a member of the Make-A-Wish Foundation.
