FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

United Bankers' Bank Announces Donna Blake as AVP, Correspondent Banking Officer

BLOOMINGTON, MN - William C. Rosacker, President and CEO of United Bankers' Bank (UBB) is pleased to welcome Donna Blake to UBB as Assistant Vice President, Correspondent Banking Officer for the Pacific Northwest region. Blake employs business development expertise as a result of more than 20 years of financial services experience. Her fresh perspective, industry experience and extensive knowledge of the Pacific Northwest will make her a valuable asset to the UBB Correspondent Banking team.

In her role, Blake will be building and strengthening relationships with community banks throughout the states of Washington, Oregon and Idaho while serving as a resource for their correspondent banking needs. "Donna has developed an impeccable business acumen as a result of her extensive business background. Networking and connecting are her passion, which is why she is such a great fit for UBB," shared Craig McCandless, Senior Vice President, Regional Sales Manager.

She holds a paralegal certificate and a B.A. in Business Administration from Loyola University, Chicago, IL. Blake is active in her community as an American Red Cross Blood Drive Coordinator, in addition to her role as a financial VP at her church.
