United Bankers' Bank Announces the promotion of Chris Knight to Vice President, Sales Manager

BLOOMINGTON, MN - William C. Rosacker, President and CEO of United Bankers' Bank (UBB), is pleased to announce the promotion of Chris Knight to Vice President, Regional Sales Manager. Knight previously served as a Correspondent Banking Officer in Ohio and Michigan, playing an essential role in developing partnerships and expanding customer relationships in both states.

In Knight's new role he will oversee UBB's sales efforts in Ohio, Michigan, and Indiana. "It only makes sense to have Chris as a mentor and leader for this region. He, like everyone at UBB, is dedicated to putting the needs of our customers first and will ensure our sales team continues to build relationships and provides the products, resources, and support community banks need to be successful," Rosacker explained.

With Knight's promotion to Sales Manager, Elizabeth Woodruff will be joining Bob McGovern as Correspondent Banking Officer in Ohio. Woodruff has 26 years of industry experience, serving the past 11 years as Vice President, Operations. "Elizabeth has such a great rapport with banks in the area, and her strong customer relationships, knowledge, and exceptional service make her a perfect fit." Knight said.

Knight received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Albion College in Michigan and has been involved in the Ohio Bankers League, Community Bankers Association of Ohio, Tri-States League, Michigan Bankers Association, Community Bankers of Michigan, and Mid-Michigan Bankers Group. Woodruff holds a Bachelor's of Science degree in Finance and General Business with a minor in Spanish from Miami University, graduated from the Barret School of Banking in Memphis, Tennessee, and has earned both the AAP and NCP accreditations for her payments expertise.
